Situated at the bottom of a cul de sac this three bedroom extended semi detached family home is offered to the market having been renovated to a high standard throughout.

Offering more accommodation than initially meets the eye this property must be viewed to fully appreciate the space and condition. The ground floor has been opened to enjoy an impressive open plan style living space whilst still having clearly designated areas. The refitted kitchen with granite work surfaces, breakfast bar and sky light is the show piece of the property with its modern and light feel, the space flows beautifully into the dining and lounge areas before spilling out into the landscaped garden. The ground floor is completed by a W.C and utility room. Upstairs the high quality of the refurbishment continues with the refitted bathroom and 3 bedrooms.
