Sit in the heart of the village this charming 2 bedroom semi detached cottage is the perfect home for a first time buyer or someone looking to purchase a character property.

Unlike many cottages you enter via an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor. The lounge to the front of the property benefits from an exposed brick fireplace, leading from the lounge is the dual aspect dining room with scope to open up into the kitchen which is at the rear of the property with rear access to the garden. Upstairs the galleried landing offers a quiet reading space and door to the main double bedroom. Currently you lead from the bedroom onto a landing with access to both bedroom 2 and the bathroom although there is an opportunity to redesign the upstairs to allow access to all rooms. Externally the private rear garden is mainly laid to lawn, offers a storage shed and rear access.

A little about the corner of the world we call home...

We are lucky to be situated on the borders of Bedfordshire and Buckinghamshire, with views of the area which extend from Eaton Bray into the parish of Edlesborough and outlying villages.

The name 'Eaton' derives from the old English 'eitone', meaning 'farm by a river'. In the Domesday Book it was listed just as Eitone while 'Bray' comes from Sir Reginald Bray and the family that once owned the manor located at what is today 'Park Farm'. At one time Eaton Bray had a moated castle at the farm and what remains of it is now open to the public for fishing.

The village also houses the 'Coffee Tavern' which was built by a teetotal vicar of the parish to encourage the villagers out of the local public houses and was financed by the Wallace family known for their nurseries which grew famous carnations. Many of the roads in the area are named after them.

Edlesborough is next to Eaton Bray, just over the county boundary in Bedfordshire – about 3 miles (5 km) west-south-west of Dunstable. It offers easy commuting with train travel times from nearby Cheddington to London Euston around 45 minutes. Luton Airport is just over 8 miles away.

There are also good education opportunities with the Eaton Bray and Edlesborough Academies nearby for primary schooling while the area is within the catchment for a number of good secondary schools.

As well as the village of Edlesborough itself, the civil parish also includes the hamlets of Dagnall, Northall and part of Ringshall. Hudnall was transferred in 1885 to the parish of Little Gaddesden in Hertfordshire. Other villages in the area include Totternhoe, Slapton, Northall, Whipsnade – famous for its zoo-, Studham and Invinghoe Aston.

All offer the benefits of a semi-rural environment with close proximity to a wide range of facilities. There are many areas of natural beauty and open spaces such as the Dunstable Downs and Gateway Centre and Mead Open Farm.

With close proximity to larger towns such as Berkhamsted, Tring, Luton, St Albans and Milton Keynes the areas around Eaton Bray mix the convenience of modern living with the benefits of semi-rural living.
